Robert Half named in the 100 Best Companies to Work For list

Robert Half, the specialist finance and accounting recruitment agency, has for the fourth consecutive year been listed as one of the Sunday Times 100 Best Companies to work for.

The judges were particularly impressed by the strong principles that staff at Robert Half adhere to based on its core values; honesty, integrity and professionalism, as well as the charitable commitments undertaken to raise money and awareness for its corporate charity, Teenage Cancer Trust.

An excellent benefits system and confidence in the management team were areas that Robert Half employees scored highly. As an organisation Robert Half invests considerably in its employees and offer extensive training programmes to help them become tomorrow's managers.

Phil Sheridan, UK Managing Director of Robert Half, commented:

"We are delighted to be listed for the fourth year in the Best Companies list. We strongly believe in investing in our staff and supporting career development whilst creating a great environment in which to work. The results of our listing are reflective of the kind of atmosphere we strive for and will continue to create at Robert Half. Our staff are our most important asset and we appreciate their continuous commitment and tireless hard work."
