Robert Half Finance & Accounting wins Financial Recruitment Agency of the Year

Robert Half Finance & Accounting has been named as the Financial Recruitment Agency of the Year, as voted by UK Finance Directors who participated in the Real FD/CBI annual Satisfaction Survey. Robert Half Finance & Accounting surpassed competing recruitment agencies for the prime position.

Commenting on the award David Jones, UK Managing Director of Robert Half Finance & Accounting, said:

“At Robert Half Finance & Accounting we are dedicated to serving the interests of our candidates and client. Their satisfaction is essential to our success. We are delighted to have won this award as it is voted for by our target audience and we continue to strive towards developing candidates’ careers and providing our clients with these high quality candidates.”

Robert Half Finance & Accounting is renowned across the entire accountancy business from practice to public sector. The award recognises Robert Half Finance & Accounting’s ability in fulfilling customer satisfaction.

The Finance Directors who voted highly rated Robert Half Finance & Accounting’s quality of service and in particular the quality of its candidates.

The customer service delivered by Robert Half Finance & Accounting consultants to clients and candidates is individually tailored to provide the best outcomes for both parties. Robert Half Finance & Accounting is committed to building long-term relationships with clients and candidates alike, through its specialist services in the placement of accounting and finance professionals. The company is highly specialised in the fields of accounting and finance and can locate, and deliver, the most qualified candidates for businesses.
